101.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, individuals attending as proxies or attorneys are counted. If an individual is attending both as a member and as a proxy or attorney, the individual is counted for each and every capacity in which the individual is attending.

By way of example, if an individual attends a meeting of the Company's members as a member and as a proxy for another member, that member will be counted twice for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

101.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting set out in the notice of meeting:

- (1) where the meeting was called by the members or upon the requisition of members, the meeting is dissolved; or
- (2) in any other case, the meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place the directors specify. If the directors do not specify 1 or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:

105. Rights of proxies

[compare section 249Y]

105.1 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member:

- (1) to speak at the meeting;
- (2) to vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
- (3) to join in a demand for a poll.

105.2 If a proxy is only for a single meeting it may be used at any postponement or adjournment of that meeting, unless the proxy states otherwise.

105.3 A proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

105.4 A proxy may be revoked at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

106. When proxy form must be sent to all members

- (2) otherwise – the Company must send the form or list to all its members entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting.

107. Appointing a proxy

[compare section 250A and Corporations Regulations 2001 reg 2G.2.01]

107.1 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed or otherwise electronically authenticated (as referred to in regulation 2G.2.01 of the Corporations Regulations 2001, and in rules 107.2 and 107.3) by the member making the appointment and contains the following information:

- (1) the member's name and address;
- (2) the Company's name;
- (3) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and

- (2) the member's approval must be communicated by a form of security protection (for example, the entering of a confidential identification number such as a shareholder registration number or holder identification number).

107.4 An undated appointment is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the Company.

107.5 An appointment may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If it does:

- (1) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
- (2) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution – the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
- (3) if the proxy is the chairperson – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way; and
- (4) if the proxy is not the chairperson – the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

If a proxy is also a member, this rule 107.5 does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes the person holds as a member.

107.6 An appointment does not have to be witnessed.

107.7 A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

108. Form of proxy sent out by Company

108.1 A form of proxy sent out by the Company may be in a form determined by the directors but must:

- (1) enable the member to specify the manner in which the proxy must vote in respect of a particular resolution; and

108.2 The form may provide that if the member leaves it blank as to the person primarily appointed as proxy or if the person or persons named as proxy fails or fail to attend, the chairperson of the meeting is appointed proxy.

108.3 Despite rule 108.1 an instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form or in a form that is as similar to the following form as the circumstances allow:
